CEDRUS INVESTMENTS TITLE SPONSOR OF 2011 CAYMAN ISLANDS SQUASH OPEN

GRAND CAYMAN, Cayman Islands – February 1, 2011 – Cedrus Investments has confirmed their continued commitment to Cayman's squash by announcing their title sponsorship of the 2011 Cayman Islands Squash Open.

The 2011 Cedrus Investments Cayman Squash Open will be played from April 3-9 on an all-glass court at Camana Bay, overlooking the harbor. Both world's #1 men's and women's squash players have confirmed their attendance to the event, of which a total of over 45 professional squash players will participate.

The 2010 Cayman Squash Open was one of the biggest events on the Pro Squash Tour, attracting the participation of 8 of the top-10 female players in the world, including the current world's #1 and World Champion Nicol David from Malaysia. Cedrus Investments was one of the major sponsors for the 2010 event.

Following the 2010 tournament, Cedrus Investments donated an all-glass court to Cayman to be permanently housed on the island. The logistics for housing the all-glass court permanently indoors is still being finalized, with site discussions with Camana Bay still continuing.

Cedrus Investment's involvement in the 2011 Cedrus Investments Cayman Squash Open will help ensure the event grows as Cayman has secured the rights to hosting the 2012 World Open and the 2013 World Junior Championships.

The tournament is a non-profit event, with all of the profits going to the junior squash program. Thousands of dollars have gone into the program already, allowing over 1,000 Cayman juniors to receive free or subsidized squash lessons.

Dan Kneipp from Cedrus Investments said, "We are extremely pleased to again be involved in this tournament, and are very proud to become the title sponsors for such an incredible event. The event will be telecast around the world and will showcase Cayman's beauty. We're looking forward to the 2011 event and the build-up to hosting the 2012 World Open".
